ANNUAL CONFERENCE | NOVEMBER 13 - 15 | SAN ANTONIO, TX

About The American Association of Daily Money Managers

The American Association of Daily Money Managers (AADMM) is a national membership organization representing individuals and businesses in the growing profession of daily money management. These professionals provide personal financial services to seniors and older adults, people with disabilities, busy professionals, high net worth individuals, small business owners, and others.

A daily money manager (DMM) brings clarity and order to an individual's daily management of personal bills, budgets, and record-keeping. DMMs assist clients with activities such as bill paying, day-to-day banking, budgeting, insurance paperwork, and organizing records and receipts in preparation for income tax filing. Daily money managers are not financial planners or advisers, and do not provide investment, tax or legal advice unless certified to do so. They do not take the place of accountants, attorneys, investment advisors, or social workers; they complement services provided by these professionals.

About the AADMM Annual Conference

Each year, daily money management professionals from across the nation gather for AADMM's annual conference. This event brings together like-minded professionals for a weekend of educational sessions and networking events. It is the ideal platform to share your brand, products and services with your target customers. The 2020 Annual Conference will be held November 13 – 15 in San Antonio, Texas, with the theme: 20/20 Vision.

AADMM Annual Conference Sponsorship Options

Multiple sponsorship levels are available. AADMM's current conference schedule does not allow for an exhibit hall; however, we will have exhibit/demonstration tables available for bronze-level sponsors and above, and will designate times during the schedule when attendees can network with sponsors.
